Report on Cultural fest AKAAY on 6th February 2025

The PCACS AKAAY 2K25 Cultural Day was a grand success, showcasing the immense talent and creativity of the students. A variety of competitions were held, where participants from different departments and years took part with great enthusiasm. In Sanskrit, "AKAAY" (अकाय) could mean "without a physical body" or "formless", symbolizing something beyond material existence, possibly representing art, culture, and creativity that transcend physical boundaries. AKAAY means reflecting the spirit of culture, expression, and talent. The event highlighted the college's rich cultural diversity and creative expressions through several competitions. The much-anticipated annual cultural fest AKAAY was successfully hosted at PCACS College, Ravet, Pune. The event was a vibrant celebration of talent, creativity, and cultural diversity, attracting students from various disciplines. With a lineup of enthralling competitions and performances, AKAAY provided a dynamic platform for students to showcase their artistic and creative abilities. The fest aimed to encourage self-expression, cultural appreciation, and artistic excellence among students. The theme this year was FUSION FIESTA – THE BLEND OF TRADITION AND MODERNITY.

Days Celebration

PCACS College, Ravet, organized a vibrant Days Celebration Week filled with color, culture, and creativity. The celebrations aimed to promote unity in diversity, student engagement, and self-expression through various themed days and competitions. Here's a detailed overview of the events:

1. Saree Day/ Tie day – Fashion Show (3rd February 2025)

The college campus lit up with elegance and grace on Saree Day, as students and staff came dressed in stunning sarees, representing different styles from across the country. The highlight of the day was a Fashion Show Competition where students showcased not only their attire but also their confidence and poise. On the same day college announced Mr and Miss PCACS.

Miss PCACS – Harshanjali Shimpi

Mr PCACS – Neeraj Kulkarni

Participants were judged based on:

- Creativity
- Presentation and confidence
- Theme representation

The event fostered appreciation for traditional Indian wear while allowing students to express their personal fashion sense. It was a glamorous and fun-filled experience enjoyed by all.

2. Bollywood/Retro day: (4th February 2025)

The campus transformed into a throwback dream on Retro/Bollywood Day, with students donning iconic looks inspired by Bollywood legends and vintage styles. The Show Your Talent Competition provided a stage for students to perform acts like:

- Singing old Bollywood hits

- Dancing to retro beats

- Imitations and dialogues of famous actors

- Short skits and acts

Participants brought nostalgia and fun to life, and the audience responded with cheer and applause. The competition was a perfect blend of entertainment and talent, making it a memorable part of the celebration week.

3. Traditional day (5th February 2025)

On Traditional Day, students brought their diverse cultures to life through vibrant attire, regional music, and traditional expressions. The Showcase Your Tradition Competition allowed students to represent their unique customs, languages, and rituals from various Indian states.

Activities included:

- Cultural presentations

- Folk dance performances

- Displays of traditional food, art, and attire

Judges evaluated participants on cultural representation, creativity, and clarity of explanation. This day celebrated India's cultural richness and encouraged mutual respect and learning among students.

Competitions - AKAAY 2025 – 6th February 2025

1. Rangoli Competition

The Rangoli competition was one of the most vibrant events of the day. Students decorated the campus with beautiful patterns and designs made using colored powders. Themes varied from traditional motifs to modern interpretations, making it an exciting display of artistic talent. The use of bright colors and intricate designs demonstrated the students' attention to detail and creativity.

The spirit of healthy competition and camaraderie was evident throughout the event, leaving everyone eagerly anticipating the next edition of the Cultural Day.

Annual Sports Day on 7th February 2025

The Annual Sports Day of Pimpri Chinchwad College of Arts, Commerce, and Science was successfully held on 7th February with great enthusiasm and participation from students across various disciplines. The event aimed to promote sportsmanship, teamwork, and a healthy competitive spirit among students.

The day featured a variety of indoor and outdoor sports, ensuring equal participation opportunities for both boys and girls.

- Badminton (Boys & Girls): The badminton matches were highly competitive, with players showcasing their agility and precision.
- Carrom (Boys & Girls): The carrom competition saw excellent strategic play, with students displaying focus and skill in their moves.
- Chess (Boys & Girls): The chess tournament was a test of intellect and patience, with students engaging in intense matches.
- Cricket (Boys): The cricket matches were the highlight of the event, with teams exhibiting outstanding teamwork and sportsmanship.

Each event witnessed enthusiastic participation, and winners were awarded medals and certificates in a closing ceremony. The audience cheered for every participant, making the event more lively and engaging.

The Annual Sports Day was a grand success, fostering a spirit of unity and sportsmanship among students. It provided a platform for students to showcase their talents beyond academics, making it a memorable event for everyone involved.

Food stall (fun fair) on 8th February 2025

As a part of the business activity initiative, students of PCACS Ravet College organized a vibrant and delicious food stall event within the campus. The activity saw enthusiastic participation from eight teams, each showcasing their culinary creativity and entrepreneurial skills.

The stalls offered a mouth-watering variety of food items including Kanda Bhaji, Sandwiches, Nachos Platters, Cold Coffee, and Corn Chat and many more. Students took great effort in preparing and presenting the dishes, attracting large crowds from across the campus.

The event not only promoted the spirit of teamwork and innovation but also gave students a practical insight into food business operations such as budgeting, pricing, marketing, and customer service.

Overall, the food stall activity was a grand success, combining fun, learning, and flavorful experiences. It was appreciated by faculty and peers alike, setting a benchmark for future student-led business ventures.
